

Citizenship, Recovery and Inclusive Society Partnership (CRISP)

Workshop on Civil Society Actions on the Determinants of Mental Health

Aim: To explore the actions that can be taken by civic society to address the determinants of mental health.

Date: 10th October 2017

Venue: Lapinlahti Hospital, Pylvässali, Lapinlahdentie 1, 00180 Helsinki

Participants: Max. 20 representatives from Academia, NGOs, People with Lived Experience

Registrations: <https://www.webropolsurveys.com/S/55BB6F9F6D38A900.par>

Programme

- 9:30-10:00 Coffee and refreshments
- 10:00-10:15 Opening words and introduction - Kristian Wahlbeck Director of Development at FAMH and leader of the Policy work package in the CRISP project
- 10:15-10:45 Social determinants of mental health and the role of civic society. Dr Anna Macintyre, Strathclyde University
- 10:45-11:15 Thinking collectively – methods for building a collaborative strategy for civil society action to address the determinants of mental health. Robyn Millar, Strathclyde University
- 11:15-12:30 Lunch break
- 12:30-13:00 Using a board game as a tool for social change. Joa Käis and Tatu Leinonen, Mental Health Activists from the KOALA Association
- 13:00-13:30 Adolescent mental health stigma as a social determinant of mental health. Claire Goodfellow, Strathclyde University
- 13:30-14:00 Coffee Break
- 14:00-14:30 Experience-based expertise: what do we do with it? Päivi Rissanen PhD & PhD student, University of Tampere
- 14:30-15:00 Social policy impacts on wellbeing of oldest old – preliminary findings from the EMMY project - Johanna Cresswell-Smith, Institute for Health and Welfare (THL)
- 15:00-15:30 Concluding words

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No 690954.