

Citizenship, Recovery and Inclusive Society Partnership (CRISP) Policy Forum: Participation of People with Lived Experience in the Formulation of EU Labour Policies

Aim	To discuss diverse perspectives on developing inclusive labour policies in the EU. The focus is (i) what brings people with mental health problems into the labour market and (ii) what keeps them in the labour market. Cross cutting themes will be service user involvement and policy development.
Date	9:00-16:00, Thursday, 16 March 2017
Venue	Ulm University, Parkstrasse 11, D – 89073 Ulm, Germany, first floor

Pre-forum evening: Everyone welcome for dinner & beer on Wednesday evening. Please let us know when you'll arrive. Details will follow.

Speakers, please note: for 30-minute slots please keep presentation to max.20 min, followed by 10 minutes discussion.

Programme

- 9:00-9:15     Welcome
Nicolas Rüscher, Dept of Psychiatry II, University of Ulm & BKH Günzburg, Germany
- 9:15-9:45     Building policy frameworks
Gregor Breucker, EU Joint Action for Mental Health: Framework for Labour policy
Organisation TBC
- 9:45-10:00   Does psychosomatic consultation in the workplace keep people employed? Implications for company-level policies and service users
Eva Rothermund, Dept of Psychosomatic Medicine & Psychotherapy, Ulm, Germany
- 10:00-10:15   Commentary
Thomas Becker, Dept of Psychiatry II, University of Ulm & BKH Günzburg, Germany
- 10:15-10:35   Coffee
- 10:35-11:05   Effective means to increase participation in policy development - case studies
Stefan Tromel, International Labour Organisation (ILO), Geneva, CH, via video link
- 11:05-11:35   Experiential knowledge in mental health policy and legislation: can we ever change the agenda?

Jasna Russo, Survivor Researcher, Berlin, Germany, and Brunel University London, UK

11:40-13:10 Lunch

13:15-13:45 Vox political from the grassroots

Anne-Laure Donskoy, Independent Researcher and Consultant, Bristol, UK

13:45 -14:15 Mental health in the workplace: informing policy and practice

Ivana Ivandic, Ludwig-Maximilians University Munich, Germany

14:15-14:35 Coffee

14:35-15:05 Productivity impact of stigma in the workplace: A Global Perspective

Sara Evans-Lacko, London School of Economics and Political Science, UK

15:05-15:20 Commentary

Reinhold Kilian, Dept of Psychiatry II, University of Ulm and BKH Günzburg, Germany

15:20-16:00 Discussion and next steps